

Miss Mary Alanna Phalen is bride of Robert L. Kuhn

St. Patrick's Catholic Church was the setting Saturday morning at 11 for the double-ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass that made Miss Mary Alanna Phalen the bride of Robert Lawrence Kuhn.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Phalen of 41 Murray St., Binghamton. The bridegroom, who lived at 259 Main St., Binghamton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Kuhn of Minneapolis, Minn.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frank Harrison of St. Patrick's, assisted by the Rev. Leon Dick, chaplain at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Miss Rhonda Mincolla of Binghamton was maid of honor for the bride. Joseph Spielman of Flint, Mich., served as best man for the bridegroom.

A wedding dinner and reception followed the ceremony in the Red Room of the Colonial Motor Inn.

After a honeymoon in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn will live at 259 Main St.

The bride attended C. W. Post College, Greenvale, L.I., and was graduated from Duquesne University with a B.S. in nursing. She is employed in the intensive care unit of Lourdes Hospital.

Mr. Kuhn was graduated from the University of Minnesota, where he majored in mechanical engineering. He is employed as a development engineer by the General Electric Co., Westover.
